2nd checked bag: $25
3rd-10th bag: $50

Overweight Baggage Fees:

51-70 lbs: $49
71-100 lbs: $79
Bags over 100 pounds will not be accepted.

Oversize Baggage Fees:
(L + W + H)

62-70 inches: $49
71-80 inches: $79
Bags over 80 inches will not be accepted.

Max Weight:

100 lbs.

Max Size:

80 in.

Carry-On Items:

Allowed is one personal item (purse, laptop) and one carry-on. Dimensions of the carry-on cannot exceed 24" long + 18" wide + 13" tall for a total 55 linear inches.

Notes:

One piece of baggage can be charged with three different fees on AirTran Airways. If you bring one bag that is overweight and oversized, your cost will be $20 (1st bag fee) + $49 (oversize fee) + $49 (overweight fee) = $118 total for one bag. These fees are applicable for every piece of checked baggage.

63-80 inches: $50
81-115 inches: $75

Max Weight:

100 lbs.

Max Size:

115 in.

Carry-On Items:

You're allowed one carry-on bag, which including wheels and handles can measure up to 10" H x 17" W x 24" plus one personal item, such as a purse or laptop computer.

Notes:

Unlike other airlines, with Alaska one piece of baggage will only be subject to one fee. If your bag is under 50 lbs and 63 inches, you are charged the standard bag fee. If your bag is overweight, you're charged the $50 overweight fee only (you are not charged standard fee + overweight fee). If you are both overweight and oversized, you are charged whatever the highest fee is.

Example, if your bag is overweight 70 lbs and oversize 100 inches, your cost for that bag is $75. Most airlines charge multiple fees for one bag, so we give Alaska Airlines good scores for this.

Carry-On Items:

Bag must fit in the overhead bins or under the seat.

Notes:

The oversize and overweight fees are in addition to the standard baggage fees. You are not charged one or the other fee, you are charged both (or all of them if you are oversize and overweight). If you have one bag that is overweight, it would be cheaper to split that into two bags and stay under the 50 lbs weight limit. This is especially true with American Airlines international baggage fees because their excess fees are costly. And since these fees are one way, you could easily pay more for your baggage than you did for the price of your ticket.

Your first bag is free for Continental international baggage fees. However, your bags are subjected to being charged both overweight and oversize fees. Imagine having to pay $400 for one bag that is both overweight and oversize. Hurts right? Keep the bags small and light on Continental, otherwise you'll be paying a lot.

Notes: For excess baggage, which is your 3rd+ bag, you are charged ALL applicable fees. This means if the bag is overweight and oversized, you are charged the 3rd bag fee of $200 (depending on destination) + $200 (50-70 lbs overweight fee) + $200 (oversize fee) for a total of $450. It is much cheaper to split your overweight bag into two bags and without a doubt, keep your bag count below 3 to avoid the expensive excess charges

Meaning, if your bag is overweight and oversize, you will be charged for all 3 standard, overweight and oversize fees. It is also possible that if you change planes, you may be charged for each leg for all of these fees. Spirit Airlines baggage policy is the only airline that we have seen do that.
