

Indiana Amish Getaway
(featuring the Quilt Gardens)
Tuesday, August 17 - Thursday, August 19, 2010

Tuesday, August 17, 2010:

Join us as we experience Indiana Amish Country and the new Quilt Gardens Tour. Listed as a top 100 Event by the American Bus Association, the Quilt Gardens Tour is a must see! Escape to the picturesque, historic Amish Acres, the only oldest order Amish farmstead listed in the national register of historic places. Arrive late afternoon to a private welcome reception, then sit down to a bountiful Thresher's Dinner. Then, take your seats at the Barn Theater for a performance of Plain and Fancy, a Broadway musical hit that tells the story of the "plain" Amish community in Lancaster, PA and their "fancy" New York Visitors. (Dinner)

Wednesday, August 18, 2010:

Continental breakfast buffet served at the hotel. This morning we explore the wonders of Amish Acres with a guided house and farm tour, a wagon ride and the documentary films Genesis and Exodus. Share the heritage of the intriguing Amish people and their way of life. Lunch is included before we begin our afternoon quilt gardens tour. A local guide boards the motorcoach and describes all the planning, hard work and imagination that goes into these lush, colorful gardens, made to resemble quilts. This evening, treat yourself to a hearty dinner before a Broadway musical in the majestic Round Barn Theater. (Continental Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Thursday, August 19, 2010:

Continental breakfast buffet served at the hotel. We begin the morning with a countryside tour, stopping to visit local craftsman, including a special quilt making demonstration. We bid goodbye to Amish Acres, then depart for lunch and free time at Das Dutchmen Essenhaus. We finish out the day at the American Countryside Farmers Market. This spectacular marketplace provides the excitement of demonstrations, entertainment and cooking shows. Browse through rows of fresh wholesome foods, baked goods and Amish crafted products - something for everyone! Don't forget to view their colorful quilt garden. We arrive home late this evening after our Indiana Amish getaway! (Continental breakfast, Lunch)
